Discover groundbreaking lifestyle innovations in fitness, wellness and more at 9th Consumer Electronics Exhibition

AIBI and Lovense to debut the latest in fitness and wellness technology

Singapore, 16 May 2025 – Leading fitness equipment and pleasure technology brands AIBI and Lovense will join over 300 brands to showcase the latest in lifestyle technology at the 9th Edition of Consumer Electronics Exhibition (CEE). Organised by Constellar, CEE 2025 will be held from 22 – 25 May at Suntec Convention & Exhibition Centre.

Together with Challenger (Preferred Partner), GRAB (Official BNPL Partner), CIMB (Official Bank Partner), and Searix (Event Technology Partner), CEE 2025 highlights the rise of Lifestyle Tech, spotlighting innovations across three key verticals: Beauty Tech, Health & Wellness Tech, and Pleasure Tech.

New Brands and New Product Launches

As the Official Health Tech Partner and first-time exhibitor, AIBI will showcase a comprehensive line-up of innovative health and beauty electronic equipment designed for modern lifestyles. Visitors can try out the AIBI Vita Chair and the newly launched AIBI VibroZen Meditation Platform, which harness Vertical Vibration (WBV) and Horizontal Vibration (WBPA) technologies to support muscle toning, circulation, and stress relief. Other cutting-edge offerings include: SIXPAD, a Japanese EMS-based device that firms abdominal muscles in just 23 minutes; and Lumidiet, a Korean fat-burning innovation that uses LED and near-infrared light.

Following the successful launch of its latest AI-powered innovations at the 2025 Consumer Electronics Show (CES) in Las Vegas, Lovense, a global leader in connected pleasure technology, will make its Singapore debut at CEE 2025 to showcase these app-connected innovations, which include the AI-powered Solace Pro, next-generation Lush 4, and Mission 2 which uses advanced Touch-Sense technology.

Empowering individuals and couples to stay intimately connected across any distance, while fostering personal self-discovery and intimate wellness, visitors can experience how these devices act as interactive controllers that redefine personal connection at Lovense's Interactive Connection Zone. Visitors can 'test-drive' products using iPads or iPhones, engage with a responsive mobile app game, and witness the real-time synchronisation of the Mission 2 and Solace Pro via shared sensor technology.

Singapore's only homegrown consumer electronics chain, Challenger, returns with extensive product showcases spanning PCs & electronics, accessories, audio devices, home & living as well as wearable tech. These include wellness gadgets such as the Samsung Galaxy Ring (tracks heart rate, sleep, skin temperature with AI insights), Yoose's compact waterproof USB-C shaver, and Soocas' 2-in-1 sonic toothbrush with built-in water flosser. Tech enthusiasts and gamers can also check out the ASUS NUC, MSI GeForce RTX 50 Series, try their hands at the Logitech racing wheel showcase, trade-up their Apple iPhone for special discounts, and participate in the Challenger Lucky Draw with every $300 spent.

Exciting new product launches at CEE 2025 include Atrix's ultra-lightweight HP EliteBook 635 Aero Gen 11 AI Laptop at $1,299 (U.P. $1,889) and bundled with free HP accessories; OSIM's uErgoh, the world's first ergonomic chair with built-in massage that combines advanced massage technologies with adjustable ergonomic support; and the compact, budget-friendly Formovie Xming V1 Ultra projector by homeentertainment.sg with Google TV, Netflix and true 4K resolution. Returning exhibitor Hisense will launch the new Hisense U8Q, which features a Dolby Atmos audio system co-engineered with Devialet, delivering an all-in-one cinematic experience with no soundbar required.

Other new exhibitors at CEE 2025 include BlindXpert with its SmartZip® Track Blinds to keep out rain and convert outdoor areas into functional spaces; and Narwal, which bagged several innovation awards at CES 2024 and 2025 for its advanced robotic cleaning solutions that include intelligent self-cleaning mops and vacuums.

Returning Favourites

Following its successful brand debut at the IT Show in March 2025, leading audio technology brand JBL returns with an expanded showcase featuring crowd favourites such as the Flip 6 Portable Bluetooth Speaker, Clip 5 Ultra-Portable Bluetooth Speaker, and the JBL PartyBox 110 Portable Party Speaker, among others. Visitors can also expect a bold line-up of new and stylish home appliances from Prism+, including a bespoke refrigerator range, the Neo air conditioner with energy-efficient performance in multiple colours, the pastel-finished Macaron ceiling fan, and next-gen display innovations.

Celebrating its 28th anniversary this year, Singapore's third largest telco provider M1 returns with exclusive offers, discounts, early bird specials and daily lucky dips packed with attractive prizes. On top of enjoying $0 on latest phones from Apple, Samsung, OPPO, HONOR and affordable monthly plans from $48.95/month, visitors can participate in daily live auctions for new Apple phones and various products, starting as low as $28.

Popular smart home electronics brands including Bbyeol, Eazea, Hisense, Hydroflux, Livingcare, Luxus Digital, Möwe, Roborock, Ruhens, Sterra, and Yuhome will also be back. Joining them are custom PC builders and gaming tech powerhouses like Aftershock PC, Dreamcore, Razer, Secretlab, Sony, TTRacing, and more, who will be offering exclusive deals and live product demonstrations.
